"...St. Rita is an example of what the Lord accomplishes when he finds humble hearts open to his love."

St. John Paul II of St. Rita of Cascia—Feast Day: May 22

Liturgy & Word

Pentecost Sunday, the birthday of the Church, completes the great 50-day celebration of Easter. Today we give thanks for all God has done and continues to do to bring us and all creation to its fullness.

The Scriptures remind us that God breathes on us as individuals. God's very life flows through us. We are in God and God is in us. We are so close! This is God's love.

We have so much to be thankful for, but the greatest gift is God's life flowing through us—Eternal life!

Eternal life does not begin when we die.

Eternal life begins when we are born (and born again in Baptism). It is knowing the One true God and His Son, Jesus Christ. It is living our Catholic faith each day to its fullest.

How can we do that?

Our Sacraments are beautiful and powerful encounters with the Risen Lord. Acts of charity, kindness, and forgiveness also are powerful experiences of Christ now in our lives.

As Ordinary Time returns to the Church calendar, let's remember how "extraordinary" and special we are! God loves you and put His breath in you—you are gifted. Go, live your life to its fullest by living your Catholic faith in the love of God!

Mmgr. Edward J. Coyle

May is the month of Mary!

Dating back centuries, the month of May has been a perfect time to recognize the awe and beauty of new growth around us and the special place that Mary has in our lives. She intercedes for us all. Make time during this month to honor the Blessed Mother Mary in prayer to celebrate her faith, love, and virtue. Ave, Maria!

Parish Life

A Prayer on Pentecost

Holy Spirit, fan into flame the gifts received in our Baptism and Confirmation.

We want to receive the fire of Your love as Your disciples did at Pentecost.

Come with wonder and awe, with wisdom, understanding, and counsel, with courage and faith in You.

Holy Spirit, may our actions witness to Your presence in our lives.

Help us to see the ways our strengths can serve others in their weakness.

In all our interactions, we want to radiate love, joy, peace, patience, kindness, generosity, faithfulness, gentleness, and self-control.

Breathe new life into the world through us.

Amen.

Edited prayer from LPI.

On Pentecost, we remember the coming of the Holy Spirit to the apostles who gathered in the upper room.

This Sunday, we welcome Jennifer Snook who will become Catholic as she is sealed with the gift of the Holy Spirit (Confirmed) and receives Holy Communion.

Congratulations to Jennifer and her family!

Mark your calendars for WASA's annual Fun in the Sun! June 8 & 9 St. Ann School Gym Amazing summer prizes! $20 = 25 tickets

More Misfit Gifts Needed!

Spring cleaning is the perfect time to set aside a box of NEW items that could be used by our Fall Fest basket raffle crew as they assemble the fabulous baskets that are a trademark of the Fest. The basket raffle is a big part of the festival proceeds! If you didn't get a chance to drop off items after Christmas, now is the time! Look for the bins in our church lobby and at the exits. Thank you!

Halupki Helpers Needed

From Mary Jane Fair and Fall Fest Halupki Team—

Even though we're just starting to enjoy the spring weather, it's already time to start Halupki Prep—assembling and freezing for Fall Fest 2024.

Because of a summer project in the school cafeteria to tear down the stage and make Pre-K and After-Care care offices, we need to start as soon as school ends!

Help is needed the following days:

- Tuesday, June 11 for trimming and steaming.
- Wednesday, June 12/Thursday, June 13 for mixing and making meat filling balls.
- Friday, June 14/Saturday, June 15 for wrapping and freezing Halupki.

Please contact Mary Jane (610-393-4213) to let her know what days you can be available to help. Schedule will be solidified once volunteers are determined. New volunteers always appreciated! Thank you for your help!
